RE: Supplemental Authority in Gray v. State, No. A-13112

Dear Ms. Montgomery,

This letter is to advise the court of supplemental authority and facts in Mr. Gray's case. Alaska Rule of Appellate Procedure 212(c)(12). Oral argument is October 14, 2020 at 1:30 p.m.

Supplemental Authority

Adams v. State*, 440 P.3d 337, 340-45 (Alaska App. 2019). This pertains to pages 16-25 of Gray's opening brief and pages 5-13 of his reply brief.

Collins v. State*, 977 P.2d 741, 748 (lead opinion), and 748-53 and n. 7 (concurring opinion) (Alaska App. 1999). This pertains to pages 23-28 of Gray's opening brief and pages 5-13 of his reply brief.

Dobberke v. State*, 40 P.3d 1244, 1246-48 (Alaska App. 2002). This pertains to pages 17-28 of Gray's opening brief and pages 9-13 of his reply brief.

There are also pertinent supplemental facts in the record that I did not cite in my briefs.

*The prosecutor's proposed jury instruction, not numbered, at R. 281. This pertains to pages 21-23, 27 of Gray's opening brief and pages 5-8, 12-13 of his reply brief.

*The defense counsel's statements, at tr. 392, lines 12-14, and the trial court's response at tr. 393, lines 16-18. This pertains to pages 17-18 and 27 of Gray's opening brief and pages 11-13 of his reply brief.

Thank you for advising the court.

Sincerely,

/Paul E. Malin/84-08070
